Internal Complaint Cell

REPORT ON ESSAY WRITING COMPETITION ON HIV/AIDS AWARENESS

An Essay Writing Competition on HIV/AIDS Awareness was organized by the Internal Complaint Cell of Pratibha College of Commerce and Computer Studies Cinchwad on 16th July 2026 at PCCCS Library Reading Hall. The programme was organized with the objective of creating awareness among students about HIV/AIDS, its causes, modes of transmission, prevention, treatment, and the importance of eliminating stigma and discrimination against people living with HIV/AIDS.

Total 26 students were participated from different department of college. The competition provided students with an opportunity to express their thoughts and ideas on various aspects of HIV/AIDS awareness. Students actively participated in the competition and wrote essays on topics related to HIV/AIDS prevention, the role of education in creating awareness, the importance of early testing and treatment, and the need to show empathy and support towards people living with HIV/AIDS.

The participants demonstrated their knowledge, creativity, and sensitivity while addressing this important social and public health issue. Through their essays, students highlighted the significance of accurate information and responsible behaviour in preventing the spread of HIV. They also emphasized that HIV/AIDS awareness should be promoted through education and that misconceptions, fear, stigma, and discrimination must be addressed.

The competition successfully encouraged students to think critically about HIV/AIDS and its wider social impact. It also contributed to spreading the message that awareness, prevention, compassion, and support are essential in the fight against HIV/AIDS.

The best entries were evaluated by the appointed judges based on content, originality, relevance to the theme, organization of ideas, and language. The winners were felicitated with certificates and prizes.

Names of the winners are as follows:

1) Muskan Shaikh TYBSc CDS
2) Iqra Chaudhary SYBCom CA
3) Yashswini Rokade SYBCom CA

The event concluded with a vote of thanks to all the participants, judges, faculty members, and organizers for their valuable contribution to the successful conduct of the competition. The programme was an effective initiative towards creating awareness among students and encouraging them to become responsible and informed members of society.
