Internal Complaint Cell

Report on Essay Competition Organized by Anti-Sexual Harassment Committee

Internal Complaint Cell of the college successfully organized an Essay Competition on with the objective of creating awareness about sexual harassment, gender sensitivity, and the importance of a safe and respectful campus environment.

The theme of the competition was "Awareness PoSH and Prevention of Sexual Harassment". The event aimed to encourage students to express their thoughts, opinions, and understanding of the issue through creative and analytical writing.

Objectives of the Essay Competition

- To create awareness among students about sexual harassment and its impact on individuals and society.
- To educate students about their rights, responsibilities, and the legal provisions related to the prevention of sexual harassment.
- To promote gender sensitivity and encourage respect, equality, and dignity within the campus.
- To provide a platform for students to express their views, ideas, and suggestions on preventing sexual harassment.
- To encourage critical thinking and responsible citizenship among students.
- To foster a safe, inclusive, and harassment-free academic environment.

The competition witnessed active participation from students across various departments. 53 Participants presented insightful essays highlighting the legal framework, preventive measures, the role of educational institutions, and the importance of mutual respect and equality. The essays reflected a strong sense of social responsibility and awareness among the students.

The entries were evaluated by a panel of judges based on content, originality, clarity of thought, language, and relevance to the theme. After careful evaluation, the winners were selected and awarded certificates and prizes in recognition of their outstanding performance.

The Essay Competition proved to be a meaningful and impactful initiative, successfully fulfilling its objective of spreading awareness and fostering a culture of dignity, safety, and respect within the campus.
