“Iridescence-2023”

Celebration of Navratri –Scientific Colors

Date: 23th October 2023

Name of Department and Committee: Department of Science and Science Association

Total No. of students: 57

Class: FY & SY and TY. BSc. Reg.

The Department of Science has organized a versatile activity – “Iridescence - 2023” on the occasion Navratri and its vibrant colors. On 23rd October, 2023 the department of Botany and Environmental science showed their presentations related to different themes. For the Botany subject, students displayed the theme of millets for celebrating “International millet year 2023” and prepared nutritious and healthy food products by using different millets such as Ragi, Coda, Bajari, Kuttu, samang, etc. Students actively participated for this and realized the nutritional value and importance of millets in our day to day diet. In Environmental science, students demonstrated models and posters based on the theme of Global environmental issues and its sustainable solutions. Further, students emphasized on themes such as Acid rain, Particulate matter and its effects, water pollution etc. It helped to find out the causes and solutions for major environmental problems. Overall this activity shows very good and enthusiastic participation of students.
