In the Financial literacy session, the students learnt about the different channels of Investments, balance between safety and profitability aspects, benefits of investing at the early age, 30-20-50 principle of saving and spending, awareness about Investment trap ballons, etc. At the end of the Financial Literacy session, there was a small MCQ to assess the takeaway from the session.

Next on the track was the Employability and Skill Development session. In this session, the BNY team imparted know-how about job application, Group discussions, Final interview and placements.

In Resume building session, recent formats about the resume preparation, Dos and don'ts in the resume writing, its relevant contents were discussed and illustrated on the projector screens. After Resume building session, the students explored about effective Group Discussions. The students were divided into groups of 6 students and each group was allotted a Team Lead from BNY. The topic of the Group Discussion was the 'Overnight Disappearance of Social media'. Each team Lead monitored the student's participation and motivated them for effective delivery of thoughts.

Post lunch break, there was a session on Interview Skills. The dressing styles, ironed clothes, hair style, the expected footwear, awareness about the interviewer's company policies, suitable maintenance of personal Social media accounts were the few insights discussed in the session.

Finally, the team highlighted the requisite hard and soft skills for creating a strong niche in the corporate world. There were a lot of positive takeaways from the Industrial visit such as smart work approach rather than hard work, managerial case studies, team efforts, how to prepare oneself before any activity.

Thus, the overall experience of the visit was very worthwhile and beneficial for students to plan about their desired career jobs.

Outcome of the Event:

- The students learned about the effective budgeting of incomes, expenses and how to save in their real life.
- The students got to know about their current capabilities and also realized what they need to learn to excel in today's world.

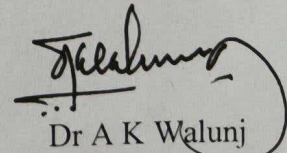

Feedback from the Students:

Department of Computer Science – AY 2023-24 Report of Study tour to GMRT, Khodad

Department of Computer Science has organized an Industrial visit on 9th January 2024. The visit started at 5:30 am from the college campus. The total 44 students and 3 faculties were involved namely Mr. Dinesh Sonavne, Mrs Jyoti Ingle, Miss Priti Jagtap.

The aim of organizing a study tour of the GMRT is to provide an enriching and immersive experience that educates, inspires, and fosters a deeper appreciation for radio astronomy, and technological innovation.

The main objectives of the Study tour to GMRT and Shivneri Fort are as follows:

- To expose students to the principles and technologies behind radio astronomy.
- To explore life skills among students for environmental awareness and a sense of responsibility towards conservation.

The journey to Shivneri Fort promises a unique blend of history, culture, and natural beauty. Shivneri holds historical significance as the birthplace of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj and is a prominent tourist attraction.

Giant Metrewave Radio Telescope (GMRT) is one of the largest and most powerful radio telescope arrays. It is located near the town of Narayangaon in the Pune district of Maharashtra, India. It is about 80 kilometers (50 miles) northwest of Pune city. It consists of 30 fully steerable parabolic dishes spread over a vast area allowing for a precise observation of celestial objects at radio frequencies. The study tour commenced with an insightful overview of GMRT's history, development, and its significance in the global scientific community. Engaging presentations by GMRT Engineer/Technical staff Mr Hanumant Rao and Mr Prakash Hande provided students with a deeper understanding of ongoing research projects, recent discoveries, and the potential impact on our understanding of the universe. Mr. Hanumant, exploring GMRT has been an eye-opening experience for students. It's ignited a passion for astronomy and inspired us to pursue the wonders of the cosmos. GMRT isn't just a telescope; it's a beacon of knowledge, guiding us on a journey of discovery through the vast expanse of space. A question and answer session allowed students to interact directly with technical staff, fostering a spirit of curiosity and inquiry. These are some questions asked by students

- How does the design of GMRT's antennas differ from those used in optical telescopes?
- What materials are used to construct GMRT's antennas, and why are they chosen?
- How does GMRT handle and process the vast amount of data collected from its antennas?

Students feel engaged, inspired, and intellectually stimulated by the opportunity to interact with GMRT's technical staff and gain insights into the world of radio astronomy. They appreciate the chance to ask questions and receive knowledgeable answers, which enhances their understanding and appreciation of the scientific endeavour.

The primary objective of the industrial visit was to provide students with practical insights into the operation of GMRT and Shivneri Fort provided a holistic learning experience, and nature.

At the last all Participants expressed their appreciation for the informative session and the chance to connect theoretical knowledge with practical applications. Students expressed gratitude for the opportunity to connect with their cultural roots and gain practical insights into historical preservation and environmental conservation. It empowered students with a broader perspective, encouraging us to think critically, and appreciate the wonders of both scientific advancement and historical legacy.
