Report on Parents Teacher Meet

The Parents-Teacher Meet was organized by Pratibha College of Commerce and Computer Studies on 26 October 2024 for all programs in order to discuss students' academic progress and provide insights into their strengths and areas for improvement and foster better communication between parents and teachers. This meet aimed to support students in achieving their academic goals by involving parents in their educational journey. The meeting saw a significant turnout from parents, which reflected their commitment to their children's academic success. Program Coordinator from each department, along with faculty advisors and college staff, were also present. Program Coordinators presented a general overview of NEP pattern, syllabus and subject framework to all parents and performance of each class and outlined the criteria used in evaluating students, including assignments, exams, projects, and participation. Detailed progress reports were shared with parents, highlighting each student's strengths, areas that require improvement, and specific skills that need further development. Teachers engaged with parents on an individual basis to discuss each student's academic journey, including achievements and potential challenges. Parents provided feedback on their children's study habits at home, allowing teachers to better understand the support each student has outside of college. Teachers and academic counselors introduced various support programs, including workshops, and mentoring sessions available to students who need additional help in specific subjects. Information was shared on co-curricular activities and upcoming events. The importance of regular attendance and disciplined behavior was emphasized, as both play a vital role in overall academic performance. Teachers encouraged parents to monitor and support attendance and shared details on how absenteeism impacts learning. Parents were encouraged to take an active role in their children's education by maintaining open communication with teachers. From each program two parent representative were chosen and facilitated with a token of love. The meeting strengthened the relationship between parents, teachers, and students, creating a supportive network focused on student success. The Parents-Teacher Meet was a productive session aimed at enhancing the educational experience of students. The interaction and collaboration between teachers and parents were instrumental in identifying and addressing issues early, providing a foundation for better academic outcomes. Total 240 parents took initiative to attend the meeting.
