Report: Elocution Competition 7th February 2024

The Maharashtra State Election Commission has declared the celebration of "Lokshahi Pandharvada" between January 26 and February 10, 2024. On this occasion, the Voters Committee of Pratibha College has arranged an elocution competition. The topic of the competition was "Election, Democracy, and Administration." The elocution competition provides a platform for the student to present their thoughts in front of people. The main objective of such completion is to enhance communication skills and build confidence among students. The students from different streams participated. They presented their thoughts on democracy, the election process, and administration in India. Shruti Shelke, a F.Y. B.Sc. regular student, won the first prize.
