Report of Movie Screening for Divyang Students

- Date : 15th January 2025
- Time : 12:30pm to 3:30pm
- Venue : PCCCS Building (G3 Classroom)
- Name of Committee: Divyang Committee
- No. of Participants: 20

The Divyang committee, in collaboration with Brahmadata Vidyalaya, arranged a film showing on 15th January 2025, to encourage kids with special needs to overcome obstacles.

The objective of this program were as follows:

1. To showcase Srikanth's journey, highlighting his struggles, achievements, and determination to succeed despite his disability.
2. The film aims to promote inclusivity and challenge societal norms, encouraging viewers to rethink their perceptions of people with disabilities. By sharing Srikanth's story, the movie seeks to inspire and motivate audiences, demonstrating that with hard work and perseverance, anyone can overcome obstacles and achieve their goals.
3. Through Srikanth's character, played by Rajkummar Rao, the movie conveys a powerful message about empowerment, self-reliance, and the importance of pursuing one's passions.

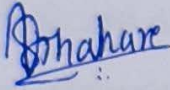

The students thoroughly enjoyed the movie and even overwhelmed with an excitement to listen the popular song "Papa Kehte Hain Bada Naam Karega." The event was further enriched by our Honourable Principal Dr. A. K. Walunj interactive session with the students, during which he also discussed upcoming events and activities.

We concluded the event by taking a memorable group photo with the school students. along with our dignitaries Principal Dr. A. K. Walunj, and Vice Principal Dr. Kshitija Gandhi.

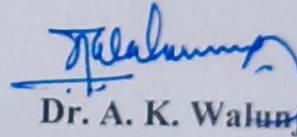

Outcome:

1. The program helped participants gain a better understanding of the challenges faced by visually impaired individuals and the importance of inclusivity.
2. The program helps to have positive impact on students.
3. Participants, the visually impaired students, reported feeling more confident and motivated to pursue their goals.
