

Divyang Committee

Objective

Promote the rights of individuals with disabilities in accordance with national and international norms, such as the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities or the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act.

Make ensuring individuals with disabilities have equitable access to healthcare, education, work, and social activities.

Encourage awareness and consideration of the needs of those with disabilities in the workplace, in society, and in educational settings

Encourage society, the business, and educational institutions to take into account the requirements of people with disabilities.