2. Ek Mutthi Anaj:

Ek Mutthi Anaj (A Handful of grains) – An activity carried out to inculcate the sense of social responsibility among the youth of the College. Under this activity, the students were asked to bring handful of grains and resultant big stock of grains would get accumulated and this lumpsum quantity of grains would be donated to needy organizations like Old age home, Orphanage etc. This activity started from July 2019. In every month on 23rd, 24th& 25th students would collect grains from all the students. The students Pratik Ban and Pravith Shetty from S.Y.B.Com led this project. Students made posters and through presentations popularized the project. Total collection for the last 5 months in the particular quarter of 2019-20 was 243 kg wheat, 263 kg rice, 10 kg Dal.

Month	Total Collection	Donated to
July	43 kg Wheat and 46 kg Rice	Gurukulam Ashramshala, Chinchwad
August	40 kg Wheat and 42 kg Rice	Vatsalya Matimanda Mula Mulinchi Shala, Dehuroad
September	50 kg Wheat and 55 kg Rice	Kinara Vruddhashram, Rupinagar
December	60 kg Wheat and 60 kg Rice	Urja Pratishtan Prakashalay, Bhosri.
January	50 kg Wheat, 60 kg Rice and 10 kg Dal	Vivekanand Kendra (Aadiwasi Project at Pimplad, Nashik).

Our students gained a heart-warming experience in the process of conducting the project. In most instances students used their pocket money to purchase the food grain for the project.
