Report

Deep Pratibha, a College Magazine, reflects the activities of our college organized throughout the year. It is a perfect medium for our students and faculty members to express their opinions, portray their writing skills (creative writing) humour, poems and articles in our magazine. It is a platform to motivate and encourage students and our renowned faculty members for their active participation in Workshops, Conferences, Seminars and Orientation programme, Research Competition (Avishkar), Inter-Collegiate competitions and so on. Deep Pratibha edition of 2016-17 has been published in July 2017.

For the academic year 2017-18, notice for the same was sent to every student and faculty member to submit their articles and achievements highlighted in various fields. Two meetings were conducted in August and September with the following committee members and accordingly guidelines were also discussed.

1. Dr. Roopa Shah
2. Prof. Anuradha Ghodke

Prof. Rasika Patil
Convenor

Dr. Rajendra Kankariya
Principal PCCCS & PJC
